The Missouri "Safe Schools Act" requires new students to register in a school district accompanied by a parent or court-appointed legal guardian. The Parent or guardian must provide a form of proof that the student is eligible to register in the district or has requested a hardship or good cause waiver within the last 45 days.

As parent or guardian of the below named student, I affirm the following to be true:

- (1) I am the parent or court-appointed guardian;
- (2) The student resides with me within the boundaries of Forsyth School District;
- (3) The student has not been suspended or expelled from school attendance in this state, or any other state; (If student has been suspended or expelled, the reason was: _____.)

NOTE: Any person submitting false information in satisfying residency registration requirements is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. The school board may institute civil action to recover costs of education for any student whose registration was based on false information.
